

SCHEDULE IS OUT

Dates for the District Title Series Are Announced.

THIRTY-TWO GAMES IN ALL

Capital City and Departmental Leagues Will Play First Game in Section "A"—Many Double-headers Arranged in "B" Section—Five-club Schedule Proves a Hard One.

By N. T. WORLEY.

We may not get a daily win, And we may lose a game; But the best bet to make is to bet on the daily rain.

We may not reach the halfway house, For we have no airplane; But the surest thing to dream on is to get our daily rain.

We may not own an almanac, And the schedule's gone to sea; But the weather man is leading us in the League of Daily Rain.

The committee on schedule and grounds of the amateur baseball commission, after a session of over three hours, gave out the schedule for the post-season series of games last evening. The first contest, as has already been announced, will be played on August 20, when the winners in the Capital City and Departmental leagues will clash at Capital City Park, and two games will be played in section B as follows: At Sunday School League grounds, Thirtieth and D streets northeast, Columbia (10) vs. American Security and Trust Company, at Fifth street and Florida avenue northeast, Adams Express Company vs. The Washington Herald.

The committee had no trouble drawing up a schedule of games for section A, but when it came to making out a list of the B contests there was much discussion and no end of trouble. The main fault with the schedule drawn up and submitted to the committee was in regard to the playing of games in succession by the teams, and in more than one instance one club was scheduled to play three days in a row. However, working to remedy this evil, the committee finally adopted a schedule, which, while it calls for two games in a row by all the clubs at some one time, removes the three games in a row provision, and apparently is the best schedule that could be drawn up for the series under the circumstances.

The schedule of games is as follows:

SECTION A.

August 20—Departmental vs. Capital City.

August 21—Suburban vs. Sunday School.

August 22—Capital City vs. Suburban.

August 23—Departmental vs. Sunday School.

August 24—Sunday School vs. Capital City.

August 25—Suburban vs. Departmental.

August 26—Capital City vs. Sunday School.

August 27—Sunday School vs. Suburban.

August 28—Departmental vs. Departmental.

August 29—Suburban vs. Capital City.

September 1—Capital City vs. Departmental.

September 2—Sunday School vs. Suburban.

All the games in this section, with the exception of the two home games of the Sunday School League on August 30 and September 2, will be played at Capital City Park. The two games excepted will be played on the Sunday School League grounds.

SECTION B.

August 20—Marquette vs. Bankers.

August 21—R. Y. M. C. A. vs. Commercial.

August 22—Independence vs. Marquette.

August 23—Bankers vs. R. Y. M. C. A.

August 24—Commercial vs. Independence.

August 25—Marquette vs. R. Y. M. C. A.

August 26—R. Y. M. C. A. vs. Bankers.

August 27—Bankers vs. Marquette.

August 28—Marquette vs. Commercial.

August 29—Commercial vs. Bankers.

September 1—Bankers vs. Marquette.

September 2—Marquette vs. Commercial.

September 3—Commercial vs. Bankers.

Commercial vs. R. Y. M. C. A.

All of the games in section B will be played on the home grounds of the home team. The home team is the team named first in the schedule. The Marquette League is without a suitable playing field so will use the Sunday School League grounds, except on August 30 and September 2, when the games will be played at Capital City Park.

While nothing definite has been determined on as to the umpires who will be used during the series, the whole matter being in the hands of the president of the commission, it is understood that "Bills" Betts will be employed for the section A contests while the umpire in the B games will be the regular umpire of each league playing at home or such an official as the president of each B league shall designate. In case a president desires two umpires at any one game he can ask the president of the commission to employ them and after this has been done the league must pay the umpires salary. All umpires must be appointed by the president of the commission.

Should the games which the Cornell company have with the Aloysius club and Sewerage Pumping Station be ordered played over, they could not be played before Thursday and Friday, and would the Aloysius club win from Cornell and the Cornell team beat the Sewerage Pumping out, creating a tie, the final game to decide the championship could not be played on Saturday, as the Capital City has been already scheduled to play the Departmental League on that date.

The fact that there is only one way which to extend the playing season under the rules of the amateur commission seems to have been overlooked by the Aloysius club when it filed its protest. The rules state that the commission can extend the playing season when asked to do so, provided there is no reason for an objection. The protest of the Aloysius club has filed a protest with the arbitration board, but the board has power to order the playing season extended. The commission, which has power, consists of the presidents of various leagues, and will hardly meet until Thursday at the earliest. It is like Manager O'Connor, of the Church team, slipped up a peg on his interpretation of the rules.

Manager "Jimmy" Donnelly, of the Manhattan team of the Independence League, desires to arrange a game with a strong team on Thursday or Friday at McDevitt's Field. He also wants a game with Laurel or Hyattsville for Saturday. Address James Donnelly, 828 Fourteenth street northwest.

The board of arbitration of the amateur commission will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the board room of the American Security and Trust Company, in Fifteenth street, to take up the protests of the Twining and Aloysius clubs, and the protests against the various players who have played in more than two leagues, etc. The meeting should prove to be a general house cleaning of amateur baseball troubles, and when the board adjourns everything now in doubt should be settled satisfactorily to all.

W-a-a-l, yes, the Bankers' League did hold a banquet, but we were busy, gosh ding it, and couldn't be there!

Navy Yard will clash with the Ninth team of the Sunday School League at Capital City Park, at 5:30 Thursday. The Machineists won a clean-cut victory over the Churchmen on July 29, at Marshall Hall, trimming them, 2 to 0, but Manager C. C. Love, of Ninth, expects the shoe to fit the other foot to-morrow.

Harry F. Worley, president of the Independence League, is spending a month at Akron, Ohio, with relatives, and during his absence G. E. Kraft is looking after the affairs of the league at the commission meetings.

The rain broke up all the amateur games scheduled for yesterday afternoon.

SENSATIONAL BUSH LEAGUE

TWIRLER KROH, OF CUBS, IT IS CLAIMED, PITCHED GAME

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 16.—William L. McCollum, president of the Susquehanna League, this afternoon received charges that pitcher Floyd Kroh, of the Chicago Nationals, had pitched for Danville, of the Susquehanna League, against Bloomburg last Saturday afternoon. He asserted that it is charged the name of McCall, and posed as a pitcher by that name from Colby College, who was being given a trial by Danville.

He won his game easily, by the score of 5 to 1, and showed such proficiency that his cleverness was remarked. Mrs. John Menz, of Chicago, who was in the grand stand recognized him. It is charged that the Danville management secured Kroh in Philadelphia, where he was suspended for misbehavior. President McCollum has given the Danville management twenty-four hours to prove that the strange pitcher was not Kroh. Danville rosters, who were tipped, but hundreds of dollars on the result of the game, exciting comment by the size of their bets and the odds they offered.
